CLASS POEM of 1958, Ugh!

In the town of Roy, Montana
In the shadow of the Black Butte
Sat the school board in a huddle.

Smoky burned the council fires
Smokier the passing peace-pipe
As they sat and pondered wisely.

Then up spoke the big chief Miller
Saying we have 8 palefaces
Who have finished all their courses.

Many moons the young ones studied
And they now are filled with wisdom
So we'll graduate these seniors.

Shirley Ward, a pretty pale-squaw
She will be a secretary
She will make 'em plenty wampum!

Frank Siroky, youngest classmate
Champion with the bow and arrow
He will be a mighty warrior!

Billie McNulty, cute and sassy
She will make someone a housewife
Fill the wigwam with papooses!

Eddie Landa will run the iron horse
On the railroad track he'll run it
Haul supplies into the village.

Next is blonde haired Bobby Olsen
He will teach the pale-face children
Coach them Basketball and Football.

Then comes the pale face Casanova
Tom Siroky, mighty lover
Many squaws shall fill his wigwam.

Small and studious Wanda Emery
She will be a medicine woman
And will nurse the pale face people.

Jimmy Murphy, rancher, stockman,
He with many white face cattle
Counts his ponies by the acre!

Tho we hate to have them leave us
We must graduate these students
Thus up spoke the big chief Miller.

Nodded wisely the school-board
Saying "Ugh" to all he uttered
Which means "Yes" in any language!

Senior Class History

On August 28, 1954, eight timid freshmen started their long journey through high school. They were: Jim Murphy, Billie McNulty, Frank Siroky, Rose Ingalls, Danny Dotson, Wanda Emery, Tom Siroky, and Shirley Walrod.

The first thing we did was to elect officers as follows: President, Tom Siroky; Vice President, Shirley Walrod; Secretary-Treasurer, Wanda Emery; Student Council Rep., Danny Dotson.

On Sept. 13, the fateful day of initiation arrived. The Sophomores gave us a party September 21st, and we returned the party on Oct. 7.

On September 20, Billie McNulty transferred to Billings and on the 21st, Rose Ingalls moved to Grass Range.

On November 15, we acquired a seventh freshman, Judy Anne Weasa. Mrs. Beattle was our class sponsor.

On September 6, 1955, seven sophomores returned to school. We found that we had lost Judy Anne Weasa, but gained Billie McNulty back.

Elected as class officers: President, Shirley Walrod; Vice President, Jim Murphy; Secretary-Treasurer, Wanda Emery; Student Council Rep., Danny Dotson and Tom Siroky.

We initiated the Freshmen on September 14 and held our Sophomore Party September 16th. Miss Buswell was our class sponsor.

On September 4, 1956, we returned to school as Juniors. We found that we had lost Danny Dotson, but gained Connie Curts, Bob Olsen, Ed Landa, and Dorothy Landa. The members of our class were: Wanda Emery, Billie McNulty, Jim Murphy, Frank Siroky, Shirley (Walrod) Ward, Connie Curts, Dorothy Landa, Ed Landa, and Bob Olsen.

In our Junior year we elected officers as follows: President, Bob Olsen; Vice President, Ed Landa; Secretary-Treasurer, Wanda Emery; and Student Council Rep., Tom Siroky.

The Junior-Senior prom-banquet "Oriental Night" was presented on April 18, 1957.

At the semester Judy Anne Weasa joined us again.

On September 3, 1957, nine upperclassmen entered their final year. We found that Connie Curts and Judy Anne Weasa had not returned with us. The nine seniors to enter school were: Bob Olsen, Tom Siroky, Shirley Ward, Frank Siroky, Ed Landa, Billie McNulty, Dorothy Landa, Jim Murphy, and Tom Siroky.

In the election of officers, the following were chosen: President, Jim Murphy; Vice President, Wanda Emery; and Student Council Rep., Bob Olsen and Tom Siroky.

Dorothy Landa dropped out October 15th because of illness. Mr. Miller was our class sponsor.

Commencement was held May 23rd, and Baccalaureate services were held May 25, 1958, at the High School Auditorium.

Senior Class Prophecy

Ours will be the age of longer shorts and shorter Cadillacs. It will be the age of reason looking back on the "rock and roll" as crazy. It will be the age of satellites and spinning moons. Go Man! Go!

We will find Tom Siroky on the moon. Viewed by television, he will have landed amidst a clash of gears and screaming electronic warning horns. Help! Help man! — and his swan song will run on.

Ed Landa will run up and down his mansion on a trainevator, counting the ties. President of the United States, he will feel a little lightheaded in his mansion reaching above the clouds.

Bob Olsen will be happily married. Living in the State of Texas, he will own five hundred oil wells, eleven cars — and as many children.

Frank Siroky will own three fourths of Montana and will have sawed the other fourth into Jewelry. Whole mountains of rock will have disappeared into his tumbling machine.

Billie McNulty will live in the Hawaiian Islands, married to a man so tall that she will only be kissed on the forehead. She will spend her time throwing coconuts.

Wanda Emery will marry a doctor who will head Los Angeles' largest hospital. Under ideal conditions she will have twenty seven children and hope for an even three dozen.

Jim Murphy will become the world's greatest snake hunter. He will walk the Missouri River banks equipped with a cane and a periscope to see over yon hills, shouting "Thar's one! Thar's another!"

Shirley Ward will be married to a mighty Footballer by the name of Wayback. He will play left field in a game of Tiddlewinks against the Yanks. Many papooses will run around their wigwam.

SENIOR CLASS GRUMBLES

Bob Olsen ..... Too many teachers.

Wanda Emery ..... Too much work and not enough play.

Billie McNulty ..... No room where teachers aren't allowed.

Edward Landa ..... Skip school on all the nice days.

Frank Siroky ..... More radio's so the seniors can listen to KMON.

Tom Siroky ..... Get out of school every afternoon at 2:00 so we won't have to work so hard.

Jim Murphy ..... Teachers should stay out of the study hall.

Shirley Ward ..... Not enough coffee breaks.

Last Will and Testament

We, the seniors of nineteen hundred and fifty eight, hereby make this our last will and testament, knowing that those who follow will profit by our sagacity.

TO THE TEACHERS, we leave our good understanding and patience.

TO THE JUNIORS, we leave our ability to study, knowing they need it.

TO THE SOPHOMORES, we leave the ability to respect upperclassmen.

TO THE FRESHMEN, we leave our smiles and good sense of humor.

I, Wanda Emery, will my typing book to Janet Davis.

I, Edward Landa, will my airplane ability to Jim Lawrence.

I, Jim Murphy, will Mr. Miller my curly hair, knowing he needs some.

I, Tom Siroky, will my report card to Howard Horyna to take home to his parents.

I, Billie McNulty, will part of my temper to Joyce Rindal, knowing part of it will be plenty.

I, Frank Siroky, will my driving ability to William so he can keep his car out of the ditch.

I, Shirley Ward, will my ability to be good to Joyce Rindal.

I, Bob Olsen, will my hair-do to Wilbert Zahn.

I, Wanda Emery, will my chemistry book to Barbara, hoping she will accomplish more than I did.

I, Tom Siroky, will my football ability to William Zahn.

I, Jim Murphy, will Billy and William my ability to stay in class.

I, Ed Landa, will Clyde Coulter a car so he can take his girl out once in awhile.

I, Billie McNulty, will my ability to get along with the teachers to Patricia.

I, Shirley Ward, will my driving ability to Robert Rindal.

I, Bob Olsen, will my A's to Billy Phillips, knowing he'll never get any otherwise.

WHAT ARE MEN . . . ?

Men are what women marry. They have two feet, two hands, and sometimes two wives, but never more than one collar button nor one idea at a time.

Like Turkish cigarettes, men are all made of the same material, the only difference is that some are a little better than others, better disguised.

Generally speaking they may be divided into three classes: husbands, bachelors, and widowers. An eligible bachelor is a man of abstinacy, entirely surrounded by suspicion. Husbands are of three varieties: first prizes, surprises, and booby prizes.

Making a husband out of a man is one of the highest plastic arts known to civilization. It requires science, sculpture, common sense, faith, hope, and charity . . . especially charity.

It is a psychological marvel that a soft, fluffy, tender violet-breathing sweet little thing like a woman should enjoy kissing a big, awkward, stubble-chinned, tobacco and bay-rum scented thing like a man.

If you flatter a man, it frightens him to death for fear you have designs upon his life; and if you don't, you bore him to death. If you permit him to make love to you he gets tired of you in the end, and if you don't he gets tired of you in the beginning.
